

TOP 5 THINGS TO DO IN CORNWALL DURING THE WINTER

- 1 Over 300 blissfully quiet beaches
- 2 Dog walker's paradise
- 3 Cosy traditional pubs
- 4 Cornish scenery and villages
- 5 Storm Watching

The winter weather in Cornwall is often warm (rarely dropping below freezing) and often described as wild. It's at this time of year the biggest Atlantic swells slam into the beaches and granite cliffs making Mullion the ideal place for storm watchers, especially if you can do this from the warmth and comfort of our Seaview Spa, with the crackly sound from our log burner.

Cornwall is wonderful at this time of year. The roads are quiet, cutting down on travel time and the coastal paths and beaches are deserted. Above we have compiled our top excuses to visit us this Winter and with a THIRD NIGHT FREE there is no better time to visit us.

Dear Friends,

It has certainly been an interesting few months since we re-opened our self-catering apartments in April, followed by the hotel, restaurant and spa in May. It has been challenging but we seem to have got the balance about right between staying COVID safe and maintaining standards. Thank you to all of you who have visited for your patience and understanding.

We kept ourselves busy during the lockdown by painting the outside of the hotel, refurbishing some rooms and installing a wood burner in the "doggy" lounge and giving it a complete makeover (see photograph under "lounge refurbishment").

We are now looking forward to the next few months. Our ever-popular Christmas and New Year packages are already starting to fill up, so if you do fancy spending the festive season in Mullion Cove then please call Sarah and her team to reserve your favourite room.

If you can't wait that long, you'll be delighted to read that our most popular offer is starting again from 1st November; our THIRD NIGHT FREE offer will be available until 31st March - many guests last year even doubled up and stayed six nights for the price of four, So why not spoil yourselves by relaxing in our Spa and treating yourselves to dinner in our award winning restaurant.

New for Autumn and Winter

Ocean Refresh Spa Break

We are offering a 2 night Spa break with the option of a free third night to include two "couples treatments", dinner in our restaurant on one night with Prosecco and nibbles to enjoy in the Spa. A perfect way to recharge during the long winter ahead.....

With the future looking bright we are now looking forward to welcoming you back this Autumn and Winter.

Very best wishes

Lounge Refurbishment

During lockdown we were able to commence our ground floor refurbishment. We started with the installation of a log burner in the dog lounge ready for those chilly autumn and winter days ahead. So as inconvenient as lockdown was we were able to take advantage of having no guests to disturb, creating a lovely modern lounge whilst maintaining our traditional values. This coming winter we look forward to starting the refurbishment of the middle lounge bringing it more up to date.
