CURIO GIN SCHOOL at Mullion Cove Hotel & Spa

18th June 2020

Discover how Curio Spirits create their distinct Cornish flavours during our Gin School with Wild Coast Gin. Join us from 9:30am for welcome tea and coffee whilst Will and Rubina Tyler-Street from Curio Spirits discuss the history of gin and explain how the botanicals they use create their distinct flavours.

You will then create your very own 35cl of craft gin, using botanicals of your choice and distilling it using their copper stills.

A two course "Gin" inspired lunch, designed by head Chef James Heath, will be served in the Atlantic View Restaurant at 1.30pm.

To book, please call 01326 240328.

Gin School £65 per person

Dear Friends,

Despite the poor weather we have been enduring over the last few months Spring is finally starting to show, Cornwall is starting to warm up and Mullion Cove is bursting into life and is as beautiful as ever. I just love this time of year as the winter blues start to dissipate, the coastal path starts drying up which provides excellent walking conditions and as the days start to get longer, evening after dinner strolls are the perfect end to the day.

It may seem odd that we are writing to you now, but I would like to introduce The Mullion Packet "spring edition" – a shorter more concise newsletter informing you all of what has happened here during the winter months and also inform you of all the latest offers and breaks available to you in the run up to summer at your favourite Cornish hotel, but don't worry, we shall still be sending our usual newsletter in the Autumn.

It is with great excitement and immense pride to announce that after all of our hard work and the determination of my team the AA have finally recognised us as a FOUR STAR HOTEL! There is no need to worry though, we are still the friendly and welcoming home from home you all know and love so well. We see this very much as a catch up award that simply reflects the excellent service and quality we have been offering across all areas for a long time now. Please rest assured that we will not be putting on airs and graces on the back of this award, but will continue to do what we do so well at an affordable price, offering value for money with the very best team.

Our new "previous" guest rate (which guarantees the best rate if you book direct) which we introduced back in November has been very well received with many of you taking advantage of the savings on our normal tariff, so don't forget to ask on booking or enter "MullionVIP" when booking on our website. You will never find a better rate elsewhere, so please do book direct!

The last 12 months have been ever so exciting, our new apartments are proving as popular as our harbour apartments and have now been awarded 5 gold stars by the AA (the highest accolade for self-catering apartments). The Mullion Cove Spa is up and running and I cannot wait to see it in full swing this spring and summer. Don't forget – pre book your spa treatments and save 10%.

We cannot wait to see you all this year to help us celebrate our fantastic achievement.

Best wishes

Daniel Thompson M.I.H.

Here come the girls

Petra

Natalie

Nicol

We have the pleasure of welcoming Petra Duharova to the team in the role of Restaurant Manageress. Petra Joins us from the Bear Of Rodborough in the Cotswolds, where she headed their restaurant team for 2 years and previous to that worked with Daniel and Alex in Kingsbridge for 2 years and also spent 4 years at our sister hotel – The Thurstlestone Hotel. Here, Petra will head up our well established restaurant team along with Natalie and Nicol, ensuring that our 4 star dining experience is maintained and exceeded. Her first job will be to update our breakfast buffet, bringing it up to date and introducing new additions to the breakfast offering.

In search of Seafood Perfection

With James Heath - Head Chef

In order to launch our new "Seafood Lovers" break, James headed to Newlyn Harbour to investigate where the fish for his new signature platter which is included in the break, is landed before it reaches his kitchen... "Its 4am on a Wednesday morning, a tad earlier than I'm used to getting up, however Newlyn Market is buzzing with excitement. More than 600 vessels land up to 40 different species of fish everyday and we have arrived in time to see the graders and sailors organise the days catch ready for auction. We are guests of our fish supplier Matthew Stephens & Sons, and before we know it the rows of red boxes full of Hake, Turbot, Mackerel, and much more are sold and out of the door.

The traceability, sustainability and locality of all produce my team and I prepare is so important to me, so seeing where our supplier sources this amazing catch really gives me confidence that I am seeing the very best produce we can get. On this visit I picked up some stunning stone bass that we lightly cured and served with fresh local rhubarb and smoked almonds to our guests in the Atlantic View Restaurant."
